

Acknowledgements

The Colorado Springs Regional Economic Development Corporation wishes to acknowledge the following individuals and groups:

- Stephanie Steffens, Director of the Colorado Workforce Development Council, and former Business Retention and Expansion Coordinator with the Colorado Office of Economic Development and International Trade, for her guidance and wise counsel throughout the duration of the project.
- Shela Tatro, Manager of the Economic Development Commission, COEDIT, for her much-needed assistance with our reports to the EDC.
- The Business Retention and Expansion Task Force (highlighted in Section 2), for their feedback, input, and ideas for the Business Expansion Program Model herein.
- Chris Gibbons, Director of Business and Industry Affairs, City of Littleton, for his over two decades of work in developing the Economic Gardening model for the City of Littleton, (presented in Section 9) and sharing it with economic developers nationwide.
- Beth Taylor, Business Development Representative, and Richard Albair, Central Business Development Representative, both with the Colorado Office of Economic Development and International Trade, for helping us put the finishing touches on the Toolbox of Resources.